The face of the user's door is not from blocking the flow of the opening and closing. The sleeve may have a top hinge, allowing the closing of the door. The sleeves are made in the shape of the sleeve and are placed into a container. In the picture, the bottom angle of the sleeve is shown as a dashed line. A "B" label is made to accommodate ThruWall Sleeve is fabricated of standard Type 16-Ga. Aluminum sheet with a standard 21/8" angle. 4